

1993

With a tournament-record 21-under four-round total, defending champion David Frost topped former Q-C champions and now runners-up Payne Stewart and D.A. Weibring by a tournament-record seven shots. In so doing, he became the first back-to-back Quad-Cities winner since Deane Beman won the first two events in 1971 and 1972. Having also won the previous week's Canadian Open, Frost became the first player to successfully defend and a title and also win in back-to-back weeks on Tour since Johnny Miller in 1975.
