

2001

The Quad Cities became the launching pad of another promising young player when David Gossett notched his first PGA Tour victory at the John Deere Classic, winning by one stroke and finishing at 19-under par for the week. Regarded as one of the PGA Tour's up-and-coming "Young Guns," Gossett stared down a 7-foot putt on the 72nd hole to finish at 265 and avoid a playoff. In its second year as tournament site, the TPC Deere Run continued to draw rave reviews from players and fans alike.
