

Here's how Goydos shot 59

In the first round of the 2010 John Deere Classic (July 9), Paul Goydos birdied eight of his inward nine holes en route to a bogey-free, 12-under 59 in his 448th PGA TOUR start. He joined Al Geiberger, Chip Beck and David Duval as the only players to post that record-low, 18-hole score in a PGA TOUR event. Of the three previous 59s, only Geiberger's was played under preferred-lies conditions, as was Goydos.' Duval & Geiberger converted their 59s into victory, while Beck tied for third and Goydos was second.
