A Record Round on TOUR

Paul Goydos' 12-under 59 and Steve Stricker's 11-under 60 are the two lowest scores ever posted in the same round in a PGA TOUR event. Previously, a 59 and a 60 have occurred only once in the same year. In 1999, David Duval's 59 at the Bob Hope Classic was followed by a 60 by Tommy Armour III at the Las Vegas Invitational.

The previous lowest 18-hole score at TPC Deere Run was a 10-under 61, posted by Steve Stricker in the second round in 2009, and J.P. Hayes in the second round in 2002.

Paul Goydos' back-nine, 8-under 28 in 2010 was one stroke shy of the record for most strokes under par on a front-or back-nine stretch. Four players have previously gone 9-under.

Prior to the John Deere Classic, Paul Goydos' career-low round was a pair of 62s, most recently in the second round of the 2008 Frys.com Open. His low round of 2010 prior to his 59 was a second-round, 7-under 63 at the Sony Open in Hawaii, site of his most recent win, in 2007.
